FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

The Bicycle Music Company Signs Marilyn Manson, Twiggy and Chris Vrenna.

Los Angeles, CA - August 24, 2009 - The Bicycle Music Company is pleased to announce that it has entered into three separate administration agreements with Marilyn Manson and Manson collaborators/band members Twiggy and Chris Vrenna. Collectively, these agreements grant exclusive rights to 100% of the songs included on the Marilyn Manson album 'The High End of Low', released May 26, 2009 on Interscope Records.

'The High End of Low', Manson's seventh studio album, debuted at #4 on the Billboard charts. The album marks the reunion with guitarist Twiggy, who left Manson's band in 2002. Recording was completed at Manson's Hollywood Hills recording studio with Vrenna co-producing with Sean Beavan. Manson, Twiggy and Vrenna are currently in the midst of a world-tour to support the release.

"We had so much success with Tim Skold and licensing his songs from Manson's last album, that these new deals were a no-brainer. All three songwriters are seriously open for business," said Bicycle Music Co-President, Jake Wisely.

In addition to 'The High End of Low', The Bicycle Music Company currently administers a share of the Manson album 'Eat Me Drink Me', which has seen great licensing success including the major motion picture trailers for 'Underworld 3' and 'Max Payne'.

The Bicycle Music Company has previously acquired rights in other prominent catalogs, including that of Dwight Yoakam, Raul Malo, Foghat, Jefferson Airplane and Jefferson Starship, Survivor, .38 Special, Third Eye Blind, Night Ranger, Steve Dorff, Montell Jordan, The Fixx, Roger Bowling, as well as cutting edge songwriters such as Josh Kelley, Tim Skold, Jose Gonzalez, Michael Brook and Money Mark.
